Discussed the 8th grade class trip with Mr. Lipp, all agreed that the PTO would step in and help keep this tradition going.

Meet and Greet families at school functions?

Barnes and Nobel Book Fair

- Krista Gave report on how the book fair went
- $500.00 in raffle tickets
- A grand total return of $867.71
- Was a great turn out with 50 kids
- next year we want the performances to run more timely
- ideas to make sure that Canyon Creek is getting the 10% of the sales from family members and friends

- name tags for helpers that say “ Don’t forget to mention Canyon Creek when purchasing”

Krista’s Field Trip to Elder Grove

- got a lot of info about how they run their PTO meetings
  - 50 or so member’s men and women....amazing!!!
  - Huge revenue that benefit the kids
  - Lots of family fun
- Parent teacher breakfast
  - Kindergarten round up

Parent Connection Canyon Creek PTO

---

- The school buys the kids one shirt and then sales the rest
- Movie night
- Parents can see that the money is going back into the school

Melissa talked about Salt City Candles

- Great idea, not enough time to do before Christmas
- Smelled great
- The school would make $10.00 on every candle sold
- Wait till next Christmas or another time.

Music Festival February 3, 2011

- Ask Mrs. Murphy she has first choice, she may want some funds to go to the music department
- PTO can meet and greet as guest arrive
- Discussed about a great opportunity to combine PTO and 8th grade for concessions or let them have it for class trip?
- Maybe provide a sack lunch for those performing
- Supporting from Ecroth music, maybe do a thank you to them for their support
- Maybe donate what we bring in to the music department? Good way to show how PTO puts money back into the school?

Science Fair/ Curriculum Fair February 23, 2011

- K-8
- Great opportunity for an open house and getting parents involved with PTO
- Have PTO standing and greeting families as they arrive

Other Discussions

- MCT March 26th-30
